Despite the more austere outlook for the industry in 2017, Oil and Gas Asia (OGA) continues to play a pivotal role as a catalyst for the regional Oil & Gas business community. The 2017 exhibition was able to play host to over 1,600 companies from 47 countries and once again demonstrated its immense pulling power in being able to consistently attract the movers and shakers in the global petroleum community.

OGA continues to receive the necessary mix of local and international support including local major players such as ICE Petroleum, Barakah Offshore, Sapura Energy Berhad, Matco Malaysia Sdn Bhd and Pavillions from Australia, China, France, Germany, Norway, Scotland, Singapore, South Korea, The Netherlands, UK and USA.

"I really enjoyed the tour of OGA 2017. I've seen a lot of innovations especially from the smaller companies in this year's OGA.

By going to these exhibitions, meeting the people who actually make things, it is really an uplifting experience for me."
